

I fully support the passing of HB2543 as it is common sense that a gun should not be sold to someone without a completed background check that ensures they are legally able to buy and possess a gun.