

I fully support HJR11 - legislation that makes voting more accessible to all citizens. Same day registration allows for anyone to register and allow their vote to be counted.

I worked with several people who had moved here from another state and missed the registration deadline, but had no way to get their ballots from the state they moved from. This would have benefited them and many others. A busy elections office is no excuse to restrict a citizen's ability to get their vote counted.