

This bill if passed will increase the chance and ability of elections to have fraudulent votes counted, thereby destroying the votes of registered voters. It violates the known and trusted election laws that are designed to maintain election integrity.