

Introduce myself: retired registered nurse with thirty years of experience in Oregon's small to largest hospitals. Member of the Episcopal Diocese of Oregon Commission on Poverty and Homelessness.

This task force must be given the time and resources to do a careful and thorough job. The timeline setbacks they have suffered are well known. Their work must be done carefully and deliberately the better to avoid policy errors made in haste.