

I do not see any reason why the county clerk's office cannot begin opening ballots as they arrive in their office. This is as long as secrecy is maintained.