

For all these severe penalties to be enacted, you'd think we'd have had a problem in the past with people who carry concealed. Has anyone actually presented incidents of wanton violence by a permit holder to justify this level of infringement Oregonians?