

I support this bill. If police are not able to verify whether a person is allowed to buy a gun, the person should not be allowed to buy the gun. Police should have all the time they need to make sure the gun sale is legal and the person is not prohibited from owning firearms.