

I support this bill because I think the greatest danger to people from guns is when the guns are in the hands of unstable people. That is the opposite of a "well regulated militia" as stated in the second amendment.