

This bill is not intended to reduce crime, but to unconstitutionally harass and target individuals who are generally the most law abiding and least dangerous. It should not even get out of committee. It serves no purpose since concealed handgun licensees are not a public safety problem.