

What on earth are you people thinking? Or are you, actually, thinking. Do you not realize that most thinking Oregonians know exactly what you are trying to do here with this legislation? Please people.

Incarcerated persons made a decision to forfeit their civil rights when they committed the crime that violated the civil rights of a fellow American or Americans. They owe a debt to society for that bad decision and it's outcome on the victim, and they are incarcerated to pay that debt. They have some rights, but voting isn't one of them.
