

House Committee On Agriculture and Natural Resources
H2379

As a small woodlot owner That will have to pay severance tax on the selective harvest of my burned Timber. I encourage you to let the freeloading timber industry do the same and once again be good citizens.

Paying there fair share like the rest of us do will make them feel good eventually. Why they may even start to actually act respectfully towards our Environment both human & natural.

James Baker