

You are taking away the rights of American people and infringing on the constitution of America you do not have the right to do this remember it is we the people not what the government thinks is right for us do not pass this bill thank you