

My daughter has been suffering with PANDAS for 6 years. Treatment has been difficult if no impossible to obtain. Her life is forever changed by this disease as is her siblings. This disease needs to be recognized and treat as any other life threatening disease. These kids and their families suffer irreversible pain and suffering. Something needs to be done now. Please help.