

Senators

I feel this would just be another anti-Constitutional law to control citizens with a concealed license permit . This like most other guns laws does nothing to stop criminals from going into a public building . Nor would increasing fees for concealed license permits other than to make it less affordable to seniors trying to protect themselves and spouses with the increase of crimes .