

Committee members: Strongly oppose this bill as raising rates to support alternative energy is going to cost rate payors to pay for projects they may not support and to equal out the cost to low income rate payors. That sounds fair..NOT!
This bill will raise the cost of school construction by incorporating energy conservation.

Bob Sowdon