

It is every citizens right to keep and bare arms to protect life and liberty. History shows what happens when guns are banned; government has an open door to limit freedoms.