

The second amendment is not to be infringed on. This bill does exactly that. Public places are generally paid for by tax dollars from the public and therefore we should have the right to be able to protect ourselves in those places. Also I do not see the purpose of this bill other to restrict lawful and abiding citizens. There is no benefit to this bill, other than restrictions and overreach.