

I oppose this bill. The second amendment still stands and concealed carriers have passed background checks and have demonstrated an ability to safely carry a weapon as determined by the state.