

Please vote yes on SB 663. A child's parents know their child best and should be involved in any treatment protocols undertaken when the child is outside of their supervision or direct care.