

Due to the reactive and incendiary political climate, it seems prudent to allow school districts and other stated entities to choose to ban all firearms from their facilities.