

Public officials, educators and students should never need to be concerned that their lives might be endangered by someone carrying a firearm into public buildings or facilities. Please pass Senate Bill 554, which would help alleviate those fears.