

It is both foolhardy and short sighted to eliminate an agency that has a vital and irreplaceable role in public safety. I strongly oppose this bill. Oregonians depend on the focused study and regulation this agency provides.