

Large box stores exhibit more of a threat to my health vs a small mom and pop restaurant in smaller community who have worked hard to maintain proper social distancing only to have a yo yo approach mandated by the governor about opening/closing.