

I oppose SB554. It sets a trap for law abiding citizen while doing nothing to stop crime. The US Constitution gives citizens the right to bear arms. No state or local government should have the power to infringe on that right. Do you really want to prosecute people for driving through town?