

Let us save millions and simultaneously provide the appropriate treatment of our mentally ill. Police intervention can potentially lead to physical harm of this population - as well as put the police in danger. Professional personnel who deal with the mentally ill are just more qualified to de-escalate dangerous situations, and provide appropriate interventions. Please do not lobby for more jail beds; the mentally ill do not benefit from jail cells. Let us move into the 21st century in a compassionate way.