

Current restrictions are complete over reactions. Everyone just needs to be responsible for their own health. The state of Florida has been open since last August (schools, restaurants, gyms, etc) and ranks #34 out of 50 states for number of covid cases. The government seems to be using covid for control. Please stop the nonsense. Covid is real, but we just need to handle our health responsibly.