

This, and many other firearm bills, does absolutely nothing to address a major, urgent, life and death issue... It does not address mental illness, criminally insane and criminals. It directly targets law abiding citizens without addressing these things. It's an attack on the second amendment.