

I support this bill because charging stations are so crucial for people driving electric vehicles. Having convenient charging stations will also encourage more people to buy electric vehicles and that will help us get off fossil fuels.