

This is the most egregious bill you have yet to propose. This would make a felony of many law abiding citizens. I can't even understand why the legislature is considering this.

Is there also vehicular violence? Knife violence? Hammer violence? No, nor is there "gun" violence. This is a misdirected attempt at legislating mental health issues.