

I have a granddaughter who has suffered from panda/pans. It was devastating for her and her parents. The impact emotionally, physically and financially is beyond description. No child should be denied needed medical care due to insurance profits. Please take care of our wonderful children