

I think it's outrageous that landlords can evict tenants for no cause. Tenants, believe it or not, are human beings with the right to have housing. Landlords are human beings, too, and are using their disproportionate power over tenants to do to tenants whatever they want to do. I oppose no-cause eviction.