

I believe that all businesses can take appropriate precautionary measures and that a bowling alley is no less safe than a Walmart or Fred Meyer. It is discrimination not to allow certain types of businesses to open. Businesses are essential for jobs, for social health, for life.