

I am a law abiding Oregon resident; I was born here and have lived here my whole life. Someday I intend to raise a family in Oregon. I oppose this gun law bill on behalf of the responsible, law-abiding, gun-owning residents who have the constitutional right to protect themselves and their families.