

I had my first teacher of color in 9th grade. I support this bill because there is a strong need for a more diverse faculty. Diversity is something my school embraces a lot yet the faculty population says otherwise.