

I had a teacher of color in elementary school. He really liked me and said so to my parents. I support this bill because every teacher needs to be protected, not just white ones.