

I had my first teacher of color in high school. She turned out to be one of the very best teachers I ever had - Teresa Brandon, AP English. I benefited from her unique perspective and passion for teaching. More diverse teachers, please!