

The House Bill 2001 is one of the important approaches to create a culture of diversity in education so that we can empower ODE and our schools to work together strategies for hiring and nurturing teachers of color in the state of Oregon. I have my personal story to tell our state legislators about this process.