

I never had a teacher of color. It wasn't until my kids had teachers, when they were in middle school, they had an amazing African American woman for a language art teacher. I wish I had. I support this bill.