

I vehemently believe that we as a nation need to abolish legalized slavery. The idea that a large portion of our population is forced to labour for little to no money as a form of rehabilitation is false- it is cruel and unusual punishment. I stand in support of the bill to omit slavery and involuntary servitude from our constitution.