

Having a teacher of color granted me a perspective into my culture I needed and valued and could not receive from anyone other than a teacher of color. I fully support this bill to retain teachers of color.