

The first diverse teacher that comes to mind is my spanish teacher Miss Martinez she was hispanic and was actually of darker skin complexion. Most of the teachers i've seen and had were white or white passing and seeing someone tan like me made feel welcomed. I support HB 2001.