

I support this bill. I had my first teacher of color in the 1st grade and I really enjoyed it because I felt that there was someone that I could relate to. Even though they're an adult and I was a kid, I felt content.