

Strongly oppose.

This bill amends definition of "employment relations" to include class size and caseload limits as mandatory collective bargaining subjects for school districts.

Empowers unions that already have too much power. The $1 billion CAT tax was sold to voters to reduce class size issues. One would think this would have solved the class size tied to collective bargain discussion going for the last 4 years.