

Timber jobs are the economic backbone and heart of Oregon's rural communities. This timber tax will devastate jobs and small businesses already struggling to survive. As if the pandemic and forest fires of 2020 aren't bad enough! This tax won't replant and restore our devastated forests. It won't restore lost jobs or rebuild communities. It's not right. It's like kicking someone when they are down. Enough already.