

This is a horrible time to impose a new timber tax. During the middle of a pandemic, and after devastating wildfires! A new timber tax won't help replant forests or rebuild devastated communities.