

I am in opposition to a new timber tax. How could you even consider that with the pandemic and the recent wildfires in September?
A new timber tax will cost jobs and do nothing to restore our forests.