

Is this really the right time to add yet another tax? It doesn't support the lumber industry, only adds more burdens on the tax payer. It doesn't help trees to grow any faster. I really don't get the logic of this tax. Please oppose this tax.