

We are taxed enough, and taxing us on timber in our own state will devastate our community trying to rebuild after our Oregon Wild Fires this past Summer 2020. This is an ill-timed impact of another new tax.