

I support this bill. I have closely followed the investigative reporting on the timber industry's avoidance of taxation and their abandonment of rural communities. The destruction the industry is doing to our forests is inexcusable and there must be accountability. This bill is a great start.