

I am speaking as chair of the Board of Commissioners:

My firm belief is that emergency declarations are issued as the word would imply -- for the purposes of addressing an emergency. While we are still dealing with COVID we should have advanced to a new structure which permits broader participation in the response -- including the Legislature. I do not believe the law was ever designed to permit a single individual to have this level of power and authority for over a year.

Commissioner George Murdock